407 ETR Joins the ClimateWise Business Network

March 31, 2021, Aurora, ON - Windfall Ecology Centre is pleased to announce that 407 ETR has joined the ClimateWise Business Network as a member. 407 ETR is on a mission to set ambitious and realistic sustainability targets. The partnership with ClimateWise provides access to an extensive member network to learn best practices, create a culture of sustainability and help develop greenhouse gas reduction goals.

"407 ETR has demonstrated its commitment to the community and environment as outlined in their 2019 Sustainability Report. We are excited to be part of their journey to look at their operational sustainability and set targets," said Harry French, Program Manager of ClimateWise Business Network.

"As a key player in the GTA, corporate citizenship is an important focus for us at 407 ETR," says George Lovell, Director, Health, Safety & Environment of 407 ETR. "The support and guidance from ClimateWise Business Network and Green Economy Canada will help us mature our environmental reporting and further our progress in sustainability. We're thrilled to embark on this journey and are grateful for the opportunity to tap into the vast resources, knowledge and expertise we are gaining through this partnership."

We are pleased to have 407 ETR join the other 12 organizations at the ClimateWise Business Network and the over 300 businesses across the Green Economy Canada network who are taking action on climate change and demonstrating that sustainability and good business go hand-in-hand.
